

Week 1

1. They could take legal action against you if you break the terms of the contract.
2. The finance committee controls the school's budget.
3. Since our research so far has not produced any answers to this problem, we need to adopt an approach different to it.
4. The under-18s constitute nearly 25 percent of the town's population.
5. The samples varies in quality but were generally acceptable.
6. Legislating and completing the laws in the traveling industry are an urgent issue.
7. We have changed the formula of the washing powder in order to make it cleaner.
8. It is important to see all the fighting and bloodshed in his plays in historical context.
9. The country has a new policy of transferring state industries from the public to the private sector.
10. It's too early to access the long-term consequences of the two countries' union.

Week 2

1. The government passed a law to restrict the sale of guns.
2. With an election approaching, the prime minister is keen to maintain his popularity.
3. They had the right to administrate their own internal affairs.
4. Education should be relevant to the child's needs.
5. Alcohol should be consumed in moderation, and this is particularly true for pregnant women.
6. The government has established a commission to investigate the problem of inner city violence.
7. He has transferred from the warehouse to the accounts office.
8. The school is based on the fundamental principle that each child should develop its full potencial.
9. We are conducting a survey to find out what our customers think of their local bus service.
10. Farmers and market gardeners have been badly affected by the drought.

Week 3

1. The police have deduced that he must have left this apartment yesterday evening.
2. Couples who are childless can feel excluded from the rest of society.
3. My dog had to be quarantined for six months when we immigrated to the united kingdom.
4. It is not worthwhile spending so much time on minor problems.
5. The country's progress was constrained by a leader who refused to look forward.
6. I'm not convinced we have sufficient funds to do this project.
7. The voucher is valid between July and December and entitles you to 10% off all overseas flights.
8. The police uncovered a(n) scheme to steal paintings worth more than $250,000.

9. A number of charities are coordinating their efforts to distribute food to the region.
10. Within two weeks of arrival all foreigners had to register with the local police.

Week 4

1. The changes to the national health system will be implemented next year.
2. The principal aim of this meeting is to reach a decision that we all agree on.
3. Those explosions must have been subsequent to our departure, because we didn't hear anything.
4. The system has been designed to give the user quick and easy access to the required information.
5. Have they any evidence to implicate him in the robbery?
6. It's very difficult to integrate yourself into a society whose culture is so different from your own.
7. Through the concerted efforts of citizens, the old corrupt, totalitarian regime was overthrown.
8. Fresh evidence has recently come to light which suggests that he didn't in fact commit the murder.
9. Companies publish annual reports to inform the public about the previous year's activities.
10. We got a government grant for setting up our business, but they clawed it all back again in taxes.

Week 5

1. Salt is a compound of sodium and chlorine.
2. Though I'd like to know more about Spanish culture, this was not my prime motivation for doing the course.
3. The current structure does not facilitate efficient work flow.
4. He is a globalist, whereas we are nationalists who will put our country first.
5. The museums work closely together, but are separate legal entities.
6. The soil in this part of the world is not rich enough to sustain a large population.
7. It took him some time to orient himself in his new school.
8. Although the cost of making phone calls is going up, the charge for connecting to the internet will not alter.
9. Both national and community studies have shown that physical activity decreases after early adulthood and continues to decline after age 50.
10. The government is scrabbling around for ways to raise revenue without putting up taxes.